For Immediate Release

March 30, 2005

BURGLARY SUSPECT ARRESTED

On March 29, 2005, at approximately 7:33 p.m., the Hampton Police Division received a call from an individual indicating that someone was inside his apartment. When the victim arrived at his apartment located in the 300 block of Marcella Road, he observed lights on and an individual inside his residence. Using his cellular telephone, the victim telephoned the Hampton Police Division to advise police of the situation.

When the suspect exited the residence, the victim confronted him. A verbal argument led to a brief physical altercation, and the suspect fled on foot toward an adjacent shopping center parking lot. Officers arriving on the scene located and detained the suspect in the 2100 block of Coliseum Drive. The suspect was identified as Anthony Dewayne Bradford, a 42-year-old homeless man. He is charged with 1 count of breaking and entering and 1 count of grand larceny.

Corporal James West will receive questions about this release at 757-727-6608.
